Dear [Redacted]

Congratulations! It is my pleasure to offer you admission to the University of British Columbia.

UBC takes great care in selecting the incoming class from each year's pool of remarkable, talented applicants. Your hard work, academic achievements, and experiences have set you apart. I am confident that you will harness your passion and drive to contribute to our vibrant UBC community, and to build upon the outstanding academic legacy of our alumni.

As a UBC student, you will join a diverse group of leaders, scholars, and innovators at one of the top 40 research universities in the world. Students from more than 150 countries choose the University of British Columbia for many reasons. Some choose us for our high academic standards and beautiful campus locations. Others choose us for our outstanding faculty, our globally significant research opportunities, and our commitment to sustainability. Your reasons for choosing UBC will be uniquely yours - but I hope you will accept this offer of admission because UBC believes you have a great deal to accomplish here. It is students, like you, who make the University of British Columbia such an exceptional learning environment.

To formally accept UBC's offer of admission, visit the Student Service Centre at www.students.ubc.ca/ssc. See the second page of this letter for instructions. Because you are an international student who will be attending UBC for more than six months, you must apply for a study permit as soon as you accept your UBC offer. Please refer to Step 2 in the New Student Guide for more information. The UBC Registration and Orientation Guide found at <https://you.ubc.ca/beginhere> provides you with all the information required to help you plan for a successful year at UBC.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Ross
Associate Vice-President and Registrar
University of British Columbia

Dear

Please let me be the first to congratulate you on your enclosed offer of admission to the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASS) at Simon Fraser University.

I know that you feel a strong sense of pride in your accomplishments to date and have many questions about your future goals and adventures, including how the COVID-19 pandemic might impact your studies at SFU. FASS stands ready to help you navigate your educational journey at SFU, and to answer questions you may have about starting your studies at SFU.

I hope you will take advantage of the many opportunities that will come your way, discovering new and fascinating subjects in your classes, accepting co-op jobs in order to explore a world of professional career options, and participating in some of the many ways in which SFU engages and serves our communities, from field schools to community-based research to entrepreneurial activities and more.

I know that in FASS, you will be able to make exciting choices about your own pathway to success, develop meaningful connections with others, and engage in an education that is right for you.

We look forward to welcoming you to our Faculty and extend our best wishes for your continued academic success.

Sincerely,

To: You

Dear [REDACTED]

Congratulations! I am pleased to offer you admission to California College of the Arts (CCA), beginning Fall 2021. We believe that art and design can change the world and we look forward to seeing how you are going to make your mark. Most importantly, we are excited to support your growth as a student and artist at CCA.

Your application demonstrated hard work and creative promise, and we are so glad for you to join our dynamic community of artists, designers, architects, and writers.

To confirm your attendance, submit your $300 enrollment deposit at cca.edu/admitted by May 1, 2021 or two weeks after the receipt of this letter, whichever date is later.

As a new student at CCA, you will be exposed to new ideas and different perspectives that will inspire you to create art that makes a difference. The San Francisco Bay Area's geographic beauty, incredible diversity, and culture of support for the arts make CCA a perfect place to pursue your arts education.

If you haven't visited CCA yet, I encourage you to take a virtual tour of our campuses to see all the resources available to you as a student, and learn more about the incredible creative community found in the Bay Area. We hope you can join us for some of our virtual admitted student events as well! Keep an eye on your email for the invite links: we'll be hosting panels with current students, parents, campus partners, and alumni, weekly Q&As with the chairs of our programs, and more, to help you get to know CCA better from wherever you are.

Our staff is committed to helping you make a smooth transition to CCA. We have a wealth of information and next steps for admitted students at cca.edu/admitted. We are glad to answer your questions and help you make an informed decision. You can schedule an appointment with your admissions counselor by calling or texting us at 415-610-7004 or emailing us at admissions@cca.edu.

Congratulations again and welcome to the CCA Community! I look forward to meeting you on campus.

Kind regards,

Shiraz Chavan

Director of Undergraduate Admissions
